Warwick Valley Chorale Announces 70th Annual Spring Concerts and Conductor's 25th Anniversary.

Warwick, NY, April 17, 2011

The Warwick Valley Chorale, Orange County's continually active and most distinguished community chorus, is proud and excited to present its 70th Annual Spring Concert, "Mozart and Americana." Under the wonderful direction of Stanley Curtis and accompaniment by Gail Johnson, the Chorale's program will include Mozart's "Solemn Vespers" and a variety of American Cultural music. The Chorale is also excited to celebrate our esteemed conductor, Stanley Curtis' 25th Anniversary.

The soloists performing in Mozart's "Solemn Vespers" are: Julie Zivras – Soprano; Zoila (Zoey) Savale – Alto; Andrew Signorelli – Tenor; and Dennis English – Bass.

The Warwick Valley Chorale performance dates and venues are as follows:

Friday, May 20, 2011, 7:30 PM: Goshen United Methodist Church, 115 Main St, Goshen, NY

Sunday, May 22, 2011, 7:30 PM: Warwick Reformed Church, 16 Maple Ave, Warwick, NY

Our local concert venues are presented as free admission; however, donations are gratefully accepted to support the Chorale.

Chorale members had the privilege of performing Mozart's "Solemn Vespers" on April 12th at Lincoln Center's Avery Fisher Hall. The South Brunswick High School Concert Choir of Monmouth Junction, NJ and the Old Dominion University Concert Choir of Norfolk, VA also participated in this special performance.

The Warwick Valley Chorale and Stanley Curtis have participated in many local events including the Warwick Music Festival Chorus in Residence for 5 years; dedications for World War II veterans, Viet Nam Memorial and World Trade Center Memorial; Home for the Holidays annually; and with the West Point Concert Band. The Warwick Valley Chorale has also performed in 15 concerts at the ever famous Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center noted above, as well as becoming internationally known by participating in concert programs in Czechoslovakia, Spain, Australia, China, and in Greece (Summer of 2011). Currently the Chorale will be performing at Warwick's "Taste of the Town" on May 15th.

Please contact the Chorale's President, Susan Marino, at 845-222-9809 for further information or visit our website at www.warwickvalleychorale.org.
