WARWICK, NY, April 25, 2019 ~ The Warwick Valley Chorale will perform two Spring 2019 concerts in May. This season's repertoire, directed by Stanley Curtis and accompanied by Gail Johnson, literally represents 1,000 years of song. The Cambridge Songs Suite No. 2 was composed in 2018, using 11th century lyrics (whose original tunes have been lost) to create an exciting modern cantata. The Warwick Chorale will join the composer's own choruses to sing the world premiere of this work at Carnegie Hall on June 10, 2019.

Giovanni Pergolesi's 18th century Magnificat will also be performed along with the Cambridge Songs in both local concerts in May (and at the Carnegie Hall performance).

The local performances will also include a wide selection of 20th century classics from the American songbook, such as "Who Could Ask for Anything More," "Our Love is Here to Stay" and "Let's Call the Whole Thing Off," as well as Broadway tunes including "Bring Him Home," "If I Were a Rich Man," and "Luck Be a Lady Tonight."

The concerts will be presented at Grace Episcopal Church, 58 North St., Middletown on Friday evening, May 17, 2019 at 7pm and at the Warwick Reformed Church, 16 Maple Ave., Warwick on Sunday afternoon, May 19, 2019 at 4pm. Admission is free; donations will be gratefully accepted. For further information, visit www.warwickvalleychorale.org and the Warwick Valley Chorale Facebook page.
